JENNIFER MURRAY, M.D., PARTICIPATES IN LIFE'S A DANCE

PENSACOLA, FL, MAY 4, 2015: Medical Center Clinic is pleased to announce the participation of Jennifer Murray, M.D., in the 2015 Life's A Dance event benefiting Covenant Hospice. Dr. Murray is a board-certified ophthalmologist with subspecialty training in corneal, refractive and laser surgery.

The 7th Annual Life's A Dance benefit will take center stage at Pensacola Saenger Theater on Saturday, June 20th. Local celebrities and cast members from ABC's hit television series Dancing with the Stars will participate in the event.

Medical Center Clinic is proud to support Covenant Hospice and participate in this great event. In recent years, Medical Center Clinic physicians, including Donald Dewey, M.D., Lakshmi Gopal, M.D., and Derek Jones, M.D., have all showcased their talents on the dance floor.

Dr. Murray is proud to join these MCC physicians in raising money and awareness for Covenant Hospice. You can support Dr. Murray and Covenant Hospice by visiting: www.lifesadance.kintera.org

"We are excited and eager to support Dr. Murray, and to support Covenant Hospice in this fun-filled benefit in our community," states Theresa Wyatt, Associate Consultant, and Practice Management.
